

6. AN INSPIRING ALL

It has been my privilege to have known GURUJI NARAYANA for the last over 20 years. His deep insight into Hindu scriptures is to be marvelled. He has written extensively relating day to day life to our profound ancient writings about religion and humanity.

To me and I am sure several others He has been an inspiring friend, proficient educator and a great motivator. His ability to lead and convert pessimistic outlook to optimistic is without a parallel.

On their 50th wedding anniversary I and my wife Geeta wish Guruji Narayana and Sujana Devi ji many happy returns and best of health, all the happiness and abiding peace in the years to come.

May God bless them both and their family
